7 v.

8 OFFICER KYLE BOOTH, et al.,
9 Defendants.

Case No. 2:24-cv-02409-JAD-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 11]

10 Pending before the Court is a stipulation to exchange discovery documents by electronic
11 means. Docket No. 11. Unless doing so interferes with Court deadlines or proceedings, parties
12 are generally permitted to stipulate to discovery procedures without obtaining judicial approval.
13 Fed. R. Civ. P. 29; see also Comminey v. Sam's W. Inc., 2020 WL 2764610, *1 (D. Nev. May 27, 14 2020). The pending stipulation fails to explain why Court approval is necessary in this instance.
15 Accordingly, the stipulation is DENIED as unnecessary.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED.
